U.S. EMBASSY TOKYO
Notice of Funding Opportunity

Funding Opportunity Title: FY2023 U.S. Embassy Tokyo: Ambassador’s Youth Council Japan Conference 2023-2024
Funding Opportunity Number: TOKYO-PAS-FY23-01-10
Deadline for Applications: February 19, 2023 (by 11:59 pm JST)
Assistance Listing Number: 19.040 – Public Diplomacy Programs
Total Amount Available: $50,000

A. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

U.S. Embassy Tokyo’s Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Department of State announces an open competition for cooperative agreement proposals to design, implement, and oversee the inaugural Ambassador’s Youth Council Country-Wide Conference (AYC Japan Conference), pending the availability of FY2023 funds. The multi-day conference will gather approximately 50-70 alumni of AYC Tokyo and AYC Kansai, ages 18-24. The award recipient should design a youth-focused, high-energy, and dynamic AYC Japan Conference to give the next generation of Japanese leaders the opportunity to develop solutions, partnerships, and ideas on bilateral and multilateral cooperation towards global issues (see the “Participants and Audiences” section below for information about the AYC).

- 1. Priority Region: Japan and/or U.S.-Japan.

- 2. Program Objectives: The award recipient will be responsible for planning and administering all components and aspects of a youth-focused AYC Japan Conference to take place in Tokyo, Japan, between September 2023 and June 2024, based on scheduling availability. The multi-day AYC Japan Conference will gather 50-70 AYC Tokyo alumni and AYC Kansai alumni. The award recipient should schedule the Conference event in coordination with the U.S. Mission to Japan at a mutually agreed upon date and location in Tokyo; design the announcement flyers and sign-ups/applications; identify and secure speakers; plan AYC Japan Conference events and workshops; develop the agenda in cooperation with the U.S. Mission to Japan; oversee travel logistics; and manage follow-on activities. The AYC Japan Conference budget should be inclusive of all travel costs, accommodations, and meal arrangements for AYC Japan Conference participants and non-U.S. government speakers (U.S. government employees will cover their own travel costs). The award recipient should generate content for traditional and social media distribution, and measure program results. The budget should include limited costs for materials to promote the AYC programs such as t-shirts, bags, and pens, as well as program and promotional material.

Participants will convene for the AYC Japan Conference to forge networks with leaders from the private, public, and non-profit sectors in the United States and across Japan, setting the stage for long-term engagement and connectivity. The AYC Japan Conference should include the following aspects:

- Interaction among AYC participants and senior U.S. government officials, U.S. business and civic leaders, and dynamic young leaders from Japan preferably with U.S. higher educational backgrounds;
- Inspirational speeches from emerging and prominent leaders in the region; integration of AYC and alumni of U.S. government exchange programs to serve as speakers, panelists, or activity leads;
- Opportunities for AYC participants to engage with each other and put into practice what they have learned through the AYC sessions;
- Experiential learning activities to hone relevant leadership skills;
- An emphasis on building ties in the Indo-pacific region as well as with the United States. Discussions on the importance of global partnership to advance human capital development;
- Proposals will be evaluated based on creativity, innovation, connectivity, originality, inclusivity, and logical continuity. Proposals will be also evaluated based on direct links between the proposed activities and the previous AYC sessions.

Proposals should include a micro-grants competition for participants to develop regional projects around the conference's theme. The award recipient(s) should provide concrete plans for continued monitoring of winning projects and follow-on activities to ensure that U.S. Department of State-supported programs are not isolated events. Proposed follow-on activities for alumni should include innovative ideas and must reflect the goals and objectives of the program. The proposal should include an outline of follow-on alumni programming (including a timeline), information on how it will be coordinated with existing alumni efforts, and a description of how long-term linkages with alumni will be fostered and maintained.

Content of the AYC Japan Conference may include:

- Small-group skill building workshops on relevant topics (for example, public speaking, design thinking, data visualization, storytelling etc.)
- The role of public-private partnership and corporate social responsibility (CSR) in spurring innovative educational and economic reforms
- Site visits to U.S. military bases and innovative social enterprises
- Strengthening leadership skills and community development skills
- Strategies for personal growth and development
- Opportunities for community service
- Networking events
- Publications, program materials, and all other online programs, including social media and websites, should emphasize the U.S. Department of State's role as the program's sponsor. As such, all materials should note: "Ambassador's Youth Council Japan Conference is a program of the U.S. Department of State and the 2023 Ambassador's Youth Council Japan Conference is implemented by Award Recipient." All program branding must be approved by the State Department. Program branding should include AYC and U.S. Mission to Japan logos, as well as the American Flag. The award recipient's logo can be included and should be preceded by "implemented by."

The award recipient could create an online application or sign-ups.

The AYC Japan Conference will be conducted in English.

Proposals should include:

- Travel costs associated with each activity.
- Management of travel and lodging logistics.
- How grant funds will be used to cover the cost of transportation, travel insurance, lodging, and meals or per diem for eligible participants. All travel funded under the grant agreement should be economy class and must comply with Fly America Act requirements.

3. Participants and Audiences:

The Public Affairs Section in Tokyo and Consulate General Osaka-Kobe invite ten Japanese undergraduate students who are highly motivated and demonstrate leadership and interest in the United States and U.S.-Japan relations to participate in six-month-long seminars, entitled the Ambassador's Youth Council (AYC).

Through this conference, AYC members, both past and present, would engage in a series of workshops and seminars, to address topics of interest to the U.S.-Japan relationship, continue building leadership skills, and network. Additionally, participants will be invited to share proposals for projects they would like to receive funding for through a microgrants program that will serve as seed money for AYCers to fund their projects. Other funding for this project will be used to cover participation fees, transportation, and other event costs.

E. APPLICATION REVIEW INFORMATION

1. Criteria:

Each application will be evaluated and rated using the criteria outlined below.

- Quality, Creativity, and Feasibility of the Program Idea – 25 points: The program idea is well developed, with detail about how program activities will be carried out. The proposal includes a reasonable implementation timeline.
- Organizational Capacity and Record on Previous Grants – 10 points: The organization has expertise in its stated field and has the internal controls in place to manage federal funds. This includes a financial management system and a bank account.
- Program Impact and Ability to Achieve Objectives – 25 points: Goals and objectives are clearly stated and program approach is likely to provide maximum impact in achieving the proposed results.

- Budget – 10 points: The budget justification is detailed. Costs are reasonable in relation to the proposed activities and anticipated results. The budget is realistic, accounting for all necessary expenses to achieve proposed activities.
- Monitoring and Evaluation Plan – 20 points: Applicant demonstrates ability to measure program success against key indicators and provides milestones to indicate progress toward goals outlined in the proposal. The program includes output and outcome indicators, and shows how and when those will be measured.
- Sustainability – 10 points: Program activities will continue to have positive impact after the end of the program. Cost sharing will be considered here.

2. Review and Selection Process:

A Grants Review Committee will review and evaluate all eligible applications, selecting those with the highest scores based on the criteria above for funding. All applicants will be notified by email of the committee's decision no later than September 30, 2023.

Federal Awardee Performance & Integrity Information System (FAPIS): For any Federal award under a notice of funding opportunity, if the Federal awarding agency anticipates that the total Federal share will be greater than the simplified acquisition threshold on any Federal award under a notice of funding opportunity may include, over the period of performance (see §200.88 Simplified Acquisition Threshold), this section must also inform applicants:

- That the Federal awarding agency, prior to making a Federal award with a total amount of Federal share greater than the simplified acquisition threshold, is required to review and consider any information about the applicant that is in the designated integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently FAPIS) (see 41 U.S.C. 2313);
- That an applicant, at its option, may review information in the designated integrity and performance systems accessible through SAM and comment on any information about itself that a Federal awarding agency previously entered and is currently in the designated integrity and performance system accessible through SAM;

- That the Federal awarding agency will consider any comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in the designated integrity and performance system, in making a judgment about the applicant's integrity, business ethics, and record of performance under Federal awards when completing the review of risk posed by applicants as described in §200.205 Federal awarding agency review of risk posed by applicants.

F. FEDERAL AWARD ADMINISTRATION INFORMATION

1. Federal Award Notices:

The grant awards or cooperative agreement will be written, signed, awarded, and administered by the Grants Officer. The assistance award agreement is the authorizing document and it will be provided to the recipient for review and signature by email. The recipient may only start incurring program expenses beginning on the start date shown on the grant award document signed by the Grants Officer.

If a proposal is selected for funding, the Department of State has no obligation to provide any additional future funding. Renewal of an award to increase funding or extend the period of performance is at the discretion of the Department of State.

Issuance of this NOFO does not constitute an award commitment on the part of the U.S. government, nor does it commit the U.S. government to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of proposals. Further, the U.S. government reserves the right to reject any or all proposals received.

2. Payment Method:

Payments are requested by the recipient individual or organization through the SF-270—Request for Advance or Reimbursement Payments on an as-needed basis and in conjunction with program milestones.

3. Administrative and National Policy Requirements:

Before submitting an application, applicants should review all the terms and conditions and required certifications which will apply to this award, to ensure that they will be able to comply. These include:

- 2 CFR 25 - UNIVERSAL IDENTIFIER AND SYSTEM FOR AWARD MANAGEMENT
- 2 CFR 170 - REPORTING SUBAWARD AND EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION INFORMATION

- Guidance for Grants and Agreements in Title 2 of the Code of Federal Regulations (2 CFR), as updated in the Federal Register's 85 FR 49506 on August 13, 2020, particularly on:
  - Selecting recipients most likely to be successful in delivering results based on the program objectives through an objective process of evaluating Federal award applications (2 CFR part 200.205),
  - Prohibiting the purchase of certain telecommunication and video surveillance services or equipment in alignment with section 889 of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2019 (Pub. L. No. 115—232) (2 CFR part 200.216),
  - Promoting the freedom of speech and religious liberty in alignment with Promoting Free Speech and Religious Liberty (E.O. 13798) and Improving

Free Inquiry, Transparency, and Accountability at Colleges and Universities (E.O. 13864) (§§ 200.300, 200.303, 200.339, and 200.341),

- Providing a preference, to the extent permitted by law, to maximize use of goods, products, and materials produced in the United States (2 CFR part 200.322), and
- Terminating agreements in whole or in part to the greatest extent authorized by law, if an award no longer effectuates the program goals or agency priorities (2 CFR part 200.340).

4. Branding Requirements:

Grantees must adhere to the U.S branding and marking requirements, as described in the Standard Terms and Conditions. The Department of State requires that all programs, projects and assistance activities, partially or fully funded by the Department, be marked appropriately overseas with the standard U.S. flag in a size and prominence equal to (or greater than) any other logo or identity. All publicity and promotional materials (such as flyers, posters, website, etc.) should underscore the sponsorship by or partnership with the U.S. government or the U.S. Embassy with a standard rectangular U.S. flag in conjunction with the U.S. Embassy logo, which can be found at: here (flag) and here (U.S. Embassy seal).

5. Reporting Requirements:

Recipients will be required to submit financial and program reports. The award document will specify the reporting format and frequency.

G. FEDERAL AWARDING AGENCY CONTACTS

If you have any questions about the grant application process, please contact:

TokyoPASGrants@state.gov.

Additional resources and information, as well as dates and times of public question and answer sessions will be posted on the U.S. Embassy's website here:

<https://jp.usembassy.gov/federal-assistance-awards/>.

H. OTHER INFORMATION

1. Guidelines for Budget Justification:

- Personnel and Fringe Benefits: Describe the wages, salaries, and benefits of temporary or permanent staff who will be working directly for the applicant on the program, and the percentage of their time that will be spent on the program.
- Travel: Estimate the costs of travel and per diem for this program, for program staff, consultants or speakers, and participants/beneficiaries. If the program involves international travel, include a brief statement of justification for that travel.
- Equipment: Describe any machinery, furniture, or other personal property that is required for the program, which has a useful life of more than one year (or a life longer than the duration of the program), and costs at least $5,000 per unit.
- Supplies: List and describe all the items and materials, including any computer devices, that are needed for the program. If an item costs more than $5,000 per unit, then put it in the budget under Equipment.
- Contractual: Describe goods and services that the applicant plans to acquire through a contract with a vendor. Also describe any sub-awards to non-profit partners that will help carry out the program activities.
- Other Direct Costs: Describe other costs directly associated with the program, which do not fit in the other categories. For example, shipping costs for materials and equipment or applicable taxes. All “Other” or “Miscellaneous” expenses must be itemized and explained.
- Indirect Costs: These are costs that cannot be linked directly to the program activities, such as overhead costs needed to help keep the organization operating. If your organization has a NICRA and includes NICRA charges in the budget, attach a copy of your latest NICRA. Organizations that have never had a NICRA may request indirect costs of 10% of the modified total direct costs as defined in 2 CFR 200.68.
- Cost Sharing: Cost Sharing refers to contributions from the organization or other entities other than the U.S. Embassy. It also includes in-kind contributions such as volunteers’ time and donated venues.
- Alcoholic Beverages: Please note that award funds cannot be used for alcoholic beverages.
