FY2020 U.S. Embassy Tokyo: U.S.-Japan-Korea Trilateral English Language Student Exchange

Tokyo-PAS-FY20-02-04
March 31, 2020
19.040 – Public Diplomacy Programs
$40,000

A. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The U.S. Embassy Tokyo Public Affairs Section (PAS) of the U.S. Department of State announces an open competition for organizations to submit applications to carry out an exchange program focusing on the English language for Japanese and Korea high school to improve English language capacity for participants and to encourage stronger Japan-Republic of Korea (ROK) relations and U.S.-Japan-ROK trilateral cooperation.

Priority Region: United States, Japan, and Republic of Korea.

Program Objectives:
Communication in English is one of the key skills young people need as vibrant and contributing members of the international community; it is essential that Japanese youth are able to communicate in English. It is one of the key missions of U.S. Embassy to help young Japanese students improve their English language skills. Similarly, students in the neighboring country of the Republic of Korea (ROK), who have similar education systems and methods of English language instruction as Japan, are experiencing similar challenges when it comes to improving their English language skills.

Historically, the relationship between Japan and ROK have been less than ideal – lingering historical issues and territorial disputes, among other issues, continue to weigh heavily on the Japan-ROK relationship. However, considering the increased global threats and growing influence of other nations in the region, it is necessary for Japan and Korea to establish a strong relationship. For the U.S., Japan and ROK are strong allies; the U.S. has vested interest in ensuing trilateral cooperation. So, collaboration on the topic of English language improvement for youth is an ideal way to deepen ties between these nations.

The Embassy welcomes proposal that addresses these issues and is particularly interested in supporting the following priority areas:

- Strengthen the participants’ conversational English and cultural understanding.
- Foster leadership among Japanese and other country’s/countries’ high school students and cultivate pedagogical exchange among the diverse group of teachers, with the overarching aim of promoting cultural exchange.
- Develop students’ cross-cultural awareness and instilling a strong belief in the importance of the trilateral relationship.
• Promote understanding and support for U.S. policies, goals and values.

Participants and Audiences:
All programs must include U.S., Japan, and ROK participants, as students, teachers, and/or mentors. The target audience of the programs should be both Japanese and Korean high school students.
